Recipients of personal data: In accordance with generally binding legal regulations, we are entitled to provide your personal data to the Police of the Slovak Republic and/or the Municipal Police for the purpose of investigating security incidents that occur in the monitored area. Furthermore, we are entitled to disclose personal data to intermediaries we use to ensure security within the premises/building management.

Your rights: In connection with the processing of your personal data, you have the right to access your personal data (see Article 15 GDPR and Section 21 of the Act), to rectification or erasure of your personal data (see Article 16 or Article 17 GDPR and Section 22 or Section 23 of the Act), the right to restrict processing (see Article 18 GDPR and Section 24 of the Act). Furthermore, you have the right to object to processing (see Art. 21 GDPR and Section 27 of the Act). However, the exercise of these rights may be subject to certain exceptions and therefore may not be possible in all situations. If you exercise your rights and your request is found to be justified, we will take the required measures without undue delay, at the latest within one month (in justified cases, this period may be extended by up to two additional months).

Transfer and voluntary disclosure: Your personal data is not subject to transfer to third countries outside the EU/EEA. The provision of personal data is not a legal or contractual requirement. By entering BISB monitored premises, you acknowledge that we will collect personal data about you. If you do not consent to the processing of your personal data, please avoid the monitored areas.

Right to lodge a complaint: If you believe that your personal data is being processed in breach of the law, please contact BISB to seek redress. If your request is found to be justified, we will promptly rectify the defective situation. This is without prejudice to your ability to lodge a complaint directly with the Slovak Data Protection Authority (<https://dataprotection.gov.sk/uouu/>).
